Creative Brimbank

May-August 2022 Program

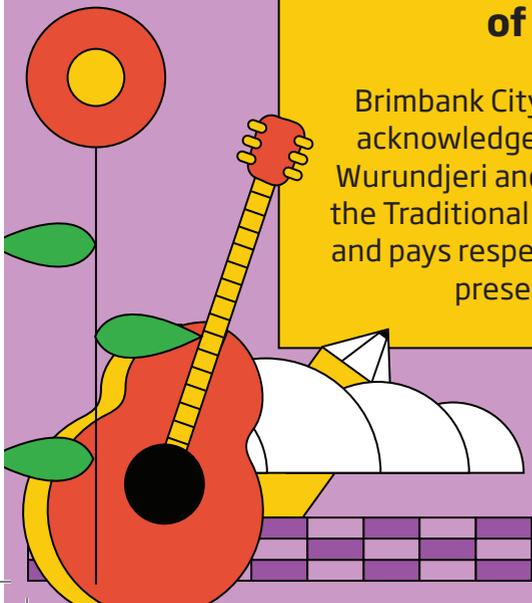

We invite everyone to participate and collaborate towards building a vibrant, connected and creative community.

We bring and support quality experiences in performing and visual arts to the west, and deliver an engaging program of creative workshops, festivals and events for the community.

Acknowledgement of Country

Brimbank City Council respectfully acknowledges and recognises the Wurundjeri and Bunurong Peoples as the Traditional Custodians of this land and pays respect to their Elders, past, present and future.

BOWERY

The Bowery Theatre, located within St Albans Community Centre, is a hub for creative arts and cultural events.

The theatre is named after the late artist, Leigh Bowery who grew up in Brimbank. Leigh was one of the most influential international arts figures of the 80s and 90s. This year the Bowery Theatre celebrates five years since its opening and pays homage to Leigh's legacy.

The Bowery presents a diverse season of theatre, music, dance and children's programming. It plays a vital role in supporting the performing arts in Melbourne's western suburbs.

Murals

Brimbank's ongoing mural program delivers many new works to the municipality every year. Here are a couple of recent highlights:

Sydenham Memorial Mural

By Heesco

Location: Watergardens Town Centre - Sydenham

This mural honours the men and women from the Sydenham district who left their homes to serve their country. Many of whom came from the early farms of the Sydenham area which is depicted in the background of this mural. It was painted by local artist Heesco to compliment the space as a site for contemplation.

Faces of Diversity

By Adnate

Location: Brimbank multi-deck car park, Sunshine

Renowned street artist, Adnate, has transformed the multi-deck carpark with a large-scale mural celebrating the cultural diversity of Brimbank. He illustrates four faces including a Wurundjeri girl (at the top), a young African woman, an elderly Eastern European man, and a young Vietnamese boy. This mural is one of a series of works titled Faces of Diversity.

INfuse Opportunity

Brimbank City Council invites artists and creative businesses to apply for a stall at the BE BOLD Festival on Saturday 8 October.

The BE BOLD Festival seeks to transform St Albans into a bold and colourful arts and cultural epicentre for one day, attracting thousands of visitors each October. In its fourth year, 2022 promises to be bolder than ever, offering an exciting, diverse and inclusive program. The festival includes exhibitions, public performance, market and food stalls and special arts events across the St Albans Community Centre (STACC) and Bowery Theatre site, as well as Errington Oval and across the precinct. BE BOLD will make available exciting art and cultural content and open up new conversations to the Brimbank community and beyond.

In 2022 BE BOLD aims to:

- Engage and promote local artists, local learning, community centres and local business
- Support artists and encourage art sector development

- Encourage increased cultural awareness
- Foster partnerships between local artists, community centres, local business and Council.
- Enable cultural, economic and community engagement and development
- Raise the profile of art, craft and culture in Brimbank

If you think you have something BOLD to offer the Brimbank community at the BE BOLD Festival please contact Jo Herbig, Visual and Public Arts Senior Officer at artspaces@brimbank.vic.gov.au for more information and to discuss your application.
